

AGN and galaxy Evolution

Castel Gandolfo, October 3 - 6, 2005

editors: Fabrizio Fiore

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	569
List of Participants	571
Session I: Properties of Active Galactic Nuclei
M. Elvis Quasar Structure	573
B.M. Peterson Black Hole Masses Based on Reverberation Mapping of the Broad-Line Region	581
N. Arav Chemical abundances in AGN: X-ray/UV campaign on Mrk 279	589
A. Königl AGN winds and jets: a theoretical perspective	598
G. Matt The X-ray view of the AGN inner regions	606
E. Quataert Nuclear starbursts and AGN fueling	614
Session II: Active Galactic Nuclei and supermassive black holes in the Early Universe
P. Madau Massive black holes during the “gray ages”	621
Z. Haiman The formation of the first black holes and their contribution to the reionization of the intergalactic medium	629
X. Fan Evolution of high-redshift quasars	635

568

- R. Maiolino
Metals and dust in high redshift AGNs 643
- F. Haardt
Hardening in a time-evolving stellar background: hyper-velocity stars, orbital decay and prediction for LISA 653

Session III: The joint evolution of Active Galactic Nuclei and Galaxies

- G. De Zotti
A physical model for co-evolution of QSOs and of their spheroidal hosts 661
- N. Menci
Cosmological evolution of galaxies and interaction-driven fueling of AGNs 670
- P. Monaco
A close look to quasar-triggered galaxy winds 678
- P. Tozzi
AGN and galaxy evolution from deep X-ray surveys 686
- F. Fiore
Unveiling obscured accretion 694
- A. Cimatti
Distant early-type galaxies: tracers of the galaxy mass assembly evolution 703
- A. Franceschini
Evolutionary paths for galaxies and AGNs: new Insights by the Spitzer space telescope 711
- A. Grazian
Future prospects for AGN and galaxy surveys with the LBT Large Binocular Camera 720

Session IV: Local Active Galactic Nuclei

- G. Fabbiano
Exploring the range of black hole masses with Chandra 728
- S. Komossa
Observational evidence for binary black holes and active double nuclei 733
- A. Marconi
Local supermassive black holes and relics of Active Galactic Nuclei 742
- D. Merritt
Black holes and nuclear dynamics 750
